STEVE SWALLOW Songbook

JHER MUJIC CO.

About the Jazz Songbook Series

Sher Music Co. has been a jazz institution since 1979, and in that time we have become the most trusted source of jazz charts in the world. In our desire to become an even more valuable resource for jazz and Latin music musicians world-wide, we have begun the Jazz Songbook series, featuring the works of some of the greatest jazz composers in the history of the music.

Unlike our earlier publications, this series of songbooks will feature one composer at a time. The charts in these books are, for the living composers, direct from their own lead sheets, not transcriptions from the recordings. This will allow you the freedom (like the musicians on the original recordings) to interpret the composers' intent in your own way, instead of being tied to a particular rendition of each song. We will not be able to provide audio files for these songs but, in almost every case, you can easily find them on YouTube &/or iTunes.

We are releasing separate, digital-only, volumes by ten great composers in this first series. Hopefully, we will be able to expand this in the future, so check back with www.shermusic.com periodically to see what is available.

Be well, stay safe and keep swinging!
